Meet the Authors Event to Feature
Mayor Mitch Landrieu, Dr. Martha Boone,
Jeffrey Round, and Thomas Sancton

Mayor Mitch Landrieu adds another star to his political crown with his explosive new memoir, In the Shadow of Statues: A White Southerner Confronts History. Scion of an old progressive, racially liberal family, he explores the controversial removal of Confederate statues and the stain of racism ruining American life. Kirkus Reviews, calls the memoir: "A powerful, welcome manifesto in the cause of a better South, a better America."

Martha B. Boone is a private practice urologist. She did her surgical and urology training in New Orleans at Tulane and worked for six years at Charity Hospital. She is one of the world's first 100 women to be trained in urology. She will be presenting her first novel The Big Free which tells a partially autobiographical story of a young doctor at Charity Hospital, who arrived totally unprepared for the harsh, hard Charity environment.

Jeffrey Round is the Lambda-Award winning author of the Dan Sharp mystery series and the comic Bradford Fairfax mystery series and the stand-alone mystery Endgame, dubbed a "punk rock reboot" of Agatha Christie's And Then There Were None. His first two books, A Cage of Bones and The P-town Murders, are on AfterElton's Top 100 Greatest Gay Books. He will be presenting his new novel Bon Ton Roulet.

Tom Sancton is an author, journalist, jazz musician. A Harvard graduate, he has a doctorate in Modern History from Oxford University, which he attended as a Rhodes Scholar. A former writer, editor, and foreign correspondent for Time magazine, he has written or co-written six books. He will be presenting his new non-fiction book: The Bettencourt Affair: The World's Richest Woman and the Scandal That Rocked Paris.

The event is free and open to the public. Advanced reservations to faulkhouse@aol.com are required. Personal admittance passes will be issued upon reservation. The event will include complimentary food, wine, and soft drinks. Meet the Authors is supported in part by the Louisiana Division of the Arts and Faulkner House Books. To reserve your books in advance, call Faulkner House Books, 504-524-2940 with credit card information.
